

I am writing to you to express my outrage at Sinclair Broadcasting's plans to air a blatantly partisan "documentary" days before the election on its stations around the country. The airwaves are the property of the people of the United States, and are to be used for their benefit. Sinclair Broadcasting is only serving their own interests, by airing this unpaid attack ad in favor of a candidate who has consistently supported media consolidation. It is the right of the people to demand their airwaves be used to foster true democratic debate, which demands a plurality of voices. Sinclair has not offered equal time to the Kerry Campaign, nor to any of the other political voices which have been systematically silenced by the Democratic and Republican parties. The FCC must fulfill its obligation and demand that Sinclair Broadcasting either pull the documentary, or offer equal time to at least the Kerry Campaign.
